HOW TO FIND THE PERFECT GIFT AND HELP THE ANIMALS AT SECOND CHANCE

Well known photographer Irene Goyette will hold an open house at her Bennington studio on November 13 and 14 to benefit Second Chance Animal Center.

Visitors will be able to have their child or pet photographed by Irene at a special low price -- $20 for a 5 x 7 portrait and $30 for an 8 x 10 size. She will donate these fees to the shelter in appreciation of the help given by Second Chance's Angel Fund to an injured stray cat she found.

An accomplished portrait and wedding photographer, Ms. Goyette will be available in her studio in the old stone house at 80 North Bennington Road in Bennington between the hours of 10 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Friday, November 13 and Saturday, November 14. No appointment is necessary. (The house is on the left where Northside Drive becomes North Bennington Road at the intersection of 7A just past the old Haynes and Kane showroom .)

"A portrait is the perfect holiday, birthday or special occasion gift," said Judy Murphy, president of Second Chance Animal Center, "We hope all of our friends will take advantage of this generous offer by Ms. Goyette."

Additional photos may be purchased. To learn more about Irene Goyette go to www.irenegoyette.com. The phone number is 802-447-1272.
